Description

Product Description

The design is anchored by vertical pillar motifs and stepped diamond medallions on the sides - a classic Southwestern / tribal gateway pattern. Every line uses a softly stippled, hand-drawn texture that mimics vintage block-weaving, giving it a lived-in, heirloom character. Rich in heritage yet incredibly versatile, it adds warmth without heavy color.

Perfect for bedrooms where you want texture + pattern without bold colours and for minimalist living rooms seeking an earthy focal point.

Key Features

Architectural Geometric Pattern: An intersecting framework of open square and rectangular paths that adds structure and visual intrigue to any room.

Ribbed Linework Detail: The charcoal lines feature an intricate, multi-tonal ribbed texture that prevents the pattern from looking heavy or flat.

High-Contrast Sophistication: A crisp ivory/beige base contrasted with charcoal and soft slate gray lines for a versatile, timeless color palette.

Artisan Craftsmanship: Woven with the meticulous attention to detail and premium materials that define The Woven Legacy collection.

Styling Tips

The Bauhaus Edit: Complement the strong linework with Bauhaus-inspired chrome-framed chairs, glass coffee tables, and minimalist monochrome decor.

Soft Modern Contrast: Balance the rug's sharp right angles by layering in plush, rounded furniture—like a curved cream sofa or circular side tables—to create a harmonious design language.
